

The background features a vibrant autumn scene. On the left, a red brick schoolhouse with a yellow bell tower sits on a green hill. A yellow school bus is driving on a winding road that curves across the landscape. The road is marked with a dashed yellow line. In the foreground, there are several stylized trees with orange and yellow foliage. To the right, there are several pumpkins of various sizes. The sky is a clear, light blue, with a few scattered autumn leaves in shades of orange, yellow, and green.
